

STATE ARCHIVIST TERRY KETELSEN

Terry is a native of Colorado and began his career with state government in 1963 working summers and holidays at the State Archives while in college. Terry graduated from the University of Northern Colorado, with a bachelor and masters degree in Economic Geography. Upon graduation, he was inducted into the US Army Military Intelligence Corps, and served as a military intelligence officer/document specialist in the Mekong Delta area of South Vietnam from 1970-1971. After leaving the service Terry returned to working at the State Archives and was appointed to the State Archivist position in 1987. He and his wife Lois currently reside in Northglenn, where he serves as the chair for the city's zoning board.